

Ways towards an immediate resolution of
The abductions issue with time constraint

The Online Symposium in the UN on the Abductions Issue

2025
June 26TH

Date 7:30am-9:15am EST
(8:30pm-10:15pm JST)

Co-hosted by Australia, Japan, the Republic of Korea, the United States, and the European Union

The abductions issue is not a historical event but an ongoing problem and an international challenge that requires immediate resolution. Australia, Japan, the Republic of Korea, the United States and the European Union will co-host an online symposium on the issue, as a side event of the UN, with the participation of the members of permanent missions to the UN in New York.

This online symposium will present the voices of families of the victims from Japan and other countries. We have also invited experts on the international situation concerning North Korea to discuss and deepen understanding of the ways to resolve the abductions issue and its importance to the international community.
