Questions & Answers

Q: I have entered the tournament but did not make the Qualifying Draw Acceptance list for Singles. What will I be playing?

A: Players not accepted into the Qualifying Draw will compete in a Regional Qualifying event. The winners of these events will gain acceptance to the Qualifying Draw. If you do not move into the Qualifying, you will be able to enter the Tier 3 event which will run alongside the National draw

Q: I do not meet all of the eligibility criteria. Can I still play?

A: Yes, you can play in the Tier 3 event which will run alongside the National draw

Q: I lost in Qualifying. Do I get a Consolation/Plate event?

A: If you lose in Qualifying, you will be placed into the Tier 3 event which will run alongside the National draw

Q: Do I have to play the Tier 3 event if I lose in Qualifying?

A: Yes, all players who enter the Nationals and do not qualify will be required to compete in the Tier 3 event

Q: Do I have to play the Tier 3 event if I lose in Regional Qualifying?

A: No. All players who lose in Regional Qualifying can choose to enter the Tier 3 event

Q: Can I enter the Tier 3 event instead of the Nationals?

A: All players will nominate for the Nationals tournament and then placed into their respective events after entries close

Q: I am in the Main Draw Singles. How many matches will I be playing?

A: All players who make the Main Draw Singles will compete in a minimum of 4 singles matches. Therefore players are expected to be available until Day 4 of the tournament

Q: I have entered Doubles with someone who is in the Qualifying. Will we still make the draw?

A: All players in National Singles Qualifying and National Singles Main Draw will be automatically entered into Doubles. Players who are not accepted into these Singles draws will be placed into a Tier 3 Doubles draw, to run alongside the National draw

Q: I would like to play Mixed Doubles but I don't have a partner. Will one be allocated to me?

A: All players who nominate without a partner will be found a partner if numbers allow, however cannot be guaranteed

Q: I am 12 years old and wish to play in the 14U event. Can I do this?

A: Players are to compete 'in age' at the National Junior Championships. Players can apply to Tennis NZ for an exemption on medical/injury grounds or if within the preceding 12 months have won a Tier 1 or National Championship (Singles only) in that age group

Q: What day can I leave?

A: Players can leave on the afternoon of Day 4 unless making the Singles Semi-Final and/or Doubles Final (Singles Final and 3rd/4th Play-Off will be played morning on Day 5, followed by Doubles Final)

Q: How will the Regional Qualifying work?

A: Regional Qualifying positions will be available for all players who do not gain acceptance into Qualifying, or do not meet the minimum MatchHub Ranking grade. The winner from each event will gain entry into the Qualifying Singles
